5th December 2014

Our Gospel Value this half term is Hope

To cherish a desire with anticipation

We have 17 children who have been 'Green' every week since the beginning of term. How many will we have left by the end of term? Due to Carols and Cakes we did not send out a newsletter so we have included all the children who were green last week and this week by putting x2 next to their names, just to be fair.

Good Learning Behaviour

Awarded to:

Amelia Huyton

Following instructions more carefully

Millie Bullock

Making the most of her learning time

Emmie Bradbury

Trying really hard with cursive writing

Delci Barlow

Trying hard in maths and fantastic reading

Community News

Toy Service at All Saints Church

Following the Toy Service on 7th Dec there will be lunch available and a festive afternoon with stalls and a visit from Santa in the Scout Centre.

Everyone is welcome. We hope you can join us.

Toy Service - All Saints Church

Sunday 7th December is the annual Toy Service, we usually take a group of children and lead various parts of the service. On the gift attach a sticker indicating the age and gender the present is for. All children attending the service must come in full school uniform. Thank you.

Guitar Performance Class 3

On Thurs 18th Dec at 9.30am class 3 will be showcasing their guitar skills, everyone welcome.

Mamma Mia

Congratulations to children who won tickets to see Mamma Mia, Amelia Wilkinson, Joe Francioli and Euan Allison.

They all said what a fantastic evening it was.

We have had a few people ask at the office why our year 6 children did not attend the Mamma Mia performance at Culcheth High School on Mon 1st Dec. Unfortunately we had not received the email inviting us.

Face Paints

The face painter from last Fridays 'Carols and Cakes' has left a price list at the school office, should anyone wish to purchase face paints for christmas or parties. The face paints are non allergic.

Parents Assembly

Friday 19th Dec everyone is welcome to the assembly starting at 9.15am. Before the assembly we will be serving refreshments.

Bug Club- Date for your Diary

On Thursday 15th January, Mr.Snelson is holding a Bug Club meeting in school at 3.30pm.

This meeting is for all parents, you will received a letter home next week.

Letters home

After listening to a number of parents we will be adding a section on the newsletter from January detailing letters that have been sent home that week. Thank you for the feed back.
