22nd September 2023 - Our "Value for life" is "Truthfulness".

The value of Truthfulness: "The truth will set you free". John 8:32

Head Teacher's Hello

Dear all,

Is it just me or is time rushing by! Another week has past by, full of learning and kindness from our children. We are entering into the autumn weather and while we are still having a smattering of sunshine, we are also experiencing the rain. On that note, a small number of children are coming into school without coats, please can I ask all children to bring coats into school (named) so we can get out in the fresh air together. Unfortunately, we don't have spares in school.

The children look so smart in their uniforms, and we feel like a family together, I also know that many parents and carers are a little frustrated by jumpers, cardigans and fleeces disappearing! (I heard it described as the uniform black hole!) I know that children are learning how to be independent and look after their property which we encourage and support BUT please help us return items and get them back into the right classes by putting names into them. We don't need fancy labels - I used to write names in pen, and they lasted about 5-6 weeks washing before I had to do them again...let's put a smile back for our mums and dads by making sure the black hole disappears and not our jumpers.

Please also know we are equally frustrated by the road works currently outside school, we recognise the difficulties that presents for parents and carers. We will always keep registers open much longer when an incident occurs, as seen this week, and will be supporting while the roadworks are on.

Mrs Mowbray xx

We are a church school... This week we have looked at how making the right choice is part of how we tell the truth and be truth givers.

We also welcome our new vicar Reverend Bob Lewis to our school family.
