If it's cold, children may if they wish, wear navy blue/black jogging bottoms and sweatshirt. Children should not wear their outdoor trainers for indoor P.E. This kit should be brought in each week for the outdoor P.E. lesson and then taken home.

Please Note:

All clothes and belongings must be clearly marked with the child's name

Nail varnish and transfers are not allowed

Long hair must be tied back for all P.E. lessons

School cannot accept responsibility if clothing and valuables are lost

If studs are being worn then these must be removed for P.E. (at own risk) or plasters (provided by parents) must be worn

Nursery

Uniform is not mandatory for Nursery children however, most children wear it. Some families chose to wear a royal blue cardigan or jumper and navy blue leggings/trousers. Nursery children do not have a P.E. Kit.

We play outdoors in all weather conditions, so please ensure children are dressed appropriately for the weather. On wet days, we recommend a waterproof all-in-one suit and wellies.

All uniform is available from Touchline School Wear by visiting their website
