Head Teacher's Hello:

Welcome back to everyone ...although the wind, and rain seem to be trying to dampen our spirits a little. So on a brighter note we now have the minibus and the school council have been into the bus to conduct their first meeting of this half term. They are conducting a competition within the school to give the bus a name! I did take a peek at some of the entries and we had some Spongebobs, Busby, Bertie, Bobby and Fred...I can't wait to see the rest. All children are going to use it at some point next week to have a reading session and when the library isn't booked up (after World Book Day) we will be organising trips for our children. Thank you to all who have raised the much needed funds to help us buy our own bus and give our children the best opportunities we can. This week has also seen our first community lunch, where we were joined at dinner time by five lovely members of our community, two of our year six children helped serve at lunchtime and made our visitors feel welcome. We hope to offer this opportunity to come into school every term so please watch out for the next invite. Please remember if you have a question or concern we are here for you. Mrs
