22nd May 2026 - Our "Value for life" is Humility

"Be completely humble and gentle; be patient bearing one another with love." Ephesians 4:2

Head Teacher's Hello

It has been another very busy week here at Glazebury! On Thursday, we celebrated diversity, exploring architecture in Christianity, Sikhism, Islam and Judaism. The children learned about the different religions and then made models out of Lego, cardboard, and a range of other materials. I was really impressed with the quality of the learning and the range of activities designed specifically for each class.

On Friday afternoon, we held our first Sip and Paint event with the children. It was a lovely event, led by the PTA, and the children all produced wonderful paintings of ducks! It was such a calm and industrious atmosphere, with the children concentrating and working diligently to produce their finished pieces. I would like to say thank you to the PTA for organising and Mrs Regan for her artistic input. We will be repeating this event for the children in winter and opening it up to adults as well.

It's our final week with 'Humility' as our school value. I've been so impressed with how much the children have exhibited this value each day.
