

Home School Agreement

The School will:

- Care for your child's happiness and ensure their safety and mental health is a priority.
- Provide a broad, varied and well-balanced curriculum which nurtures and develops the potential of each child;
- Foster caring and sensitive attitudes ensuring that each individual feels confident, secure, valued and respected by others;
- Create a stimulating environment which encourages independence, enthusiasm for learning and promotes an expectation of high standards;
- Develop a successful partnership between home and school;
- Keep parents up to date about their child's progress through parents' meetings and the annual written report;
- Inform parents about school activities through newsletters and notices about special events;
- Ensure that safety and welfare is always of primary importance;
- Send any urgent messages to you via Class dojo, Teacher to Parents, email and/or phone.
- Respond to parental questions or concerns which are emailed into school as soon as possible.
- Provide a balanced and broad curriculum as possible which includes physical activity.
- Achieve high standard of behaviour through building good relationships and developing a sense of responsibility
- Follow the Church of England guidance and teach your child the values and teachings of Jesus. We will also cover wider religions in order to have respect and tolerance of others.
- Provide lunches for pupils on site who fall under the 'Free School Meal scheme.'
